Final manuscript

When submitting your final manuscript following acceptance, please fill out this template with the contents of your manuscript. Your manuscript will be formatted by our team to the journal's standards following submitting the manuscript in this format.

Any and all edits required must be undertaken by the authors before submitting their manuscript for publication formatting by the Journal of Circular Economy (JoCE). Should further edits be required, the authors will be asked to make them themselves before the publication process can continue. JoCE will not edit the contents of the manuscript, including but not limited to spelling errors, reference errors, and grammatical errors.
